LiveTec Invites Attendees to Explore E11even Technologies on an Exclusive Visit

Miami, USA, March 26, 2024 - LiveTEC Expo and Conferences on Technology for Live Events and Entertainment in the Caribbean and Latin America, taking place in Miami on May 14 and 15, is pleased to announce a guided tour of the renowned nightclub E11even. This event will bring together prominent professionals in entertainment, event production, and audiovisual technology.

E11even, known for its entertainment, world-renowned shows, and endorsements from iconic artists like David Guetta, Snoop Dogg, Drake, JLo, and Tiesto, has been the epicenter of Miami's nightlife scene, offering an unparalleled experience for its patrons. Now, in collaboration with the prestigious company DAS Audio, E11even presents its latest achievement in sound technology: E11even Sound by DAS Audio.

To celebrate this milestone in the music and entertainment industry, E11even and DAS Audio have prepared an exclusive experience for a select group of LiveTec attendees. These privileged individuals will have the unique opportunity to delve into the secrets behind the extraordinary sound system implemented at E11even, through a guided tour by experts from DAS Audio.

The guided tour will include a detailed presentation of the audiovisual solutions implemented in the club, as well as a thorough explanation of the capabilities and scope of the E11even Sound by DAS Audio sound system. This firsthand event will provide attendees with an insider's perspective on the cutting-edge technologies that are transforming the nightclub experience.

It is important to note that spots for this exclusive visit are limited. Eligible professionals to attend this unique event include live event producers, audiovisual producers, sound and lighting engineers, as well as owners and managers of live event venues.
